I would like to see all the states conform to the National Do-not-call regulations. PA and NJ regulations are overly restrictive if you are a small business owner and trying to call referrals since friends and family are not allowed to be called under current state regulations. Thank you.